AFFIDAVIT

Name Peter Charles Wood
Address 21 Mingah Crescent, Shailer Park, QLD 4128
Occupation Private Investigator – Field Agent
Date 18 August 2026

I, Peter Charles Wood, of 21 Mingah Crescent, Shailer Park, Queensland, Licensed Private Investigator and Process Server, solemnly and sincerely affirm and declare as follows:

1. On Monday, 17 August 2026, at approximately 4:14 pm, I attended the furniture store known as Kira Kira, situated at 4 Fortitude Crescent, Burleigh Heads, Queensland, for the purpose of serving a Bankruptcy Notice and Judgment Notice upon Mr West Kira. (Attachment PCW1 Service Documents)
2. Upon arrival at the premises, I observed several staff members seated at their respective desks. I approached the staff and advised that I had a delivery for Mr West Kira.
3. A staff member informed me that Mr Kira was not at that location and stated that he was most likely at home. I thanked the staff member for the information and left the premises.
4. I subsequently attended the residential address of 98 Jabiru Avenue, Burleigh Heads, Queensland 4220.
5. Upon arrival at that address, I observed that the property had security measures in place, including a locked security gate.
6. I approached the entrance gate and activated the video security door alarm. A short time later, an adult male came to the entrance and spoke with me. I advised him that I had a delivery for Mr West Kira.
7. The male informed me that Mr Kira was his son and that Mr Kira was not at the residence. I asked the male when Mr Kira was expected to return home. He stated that he did not know and that it could be days or weeks before Mr Kira returned.
8. Following that conversation, the male turned away from me, returned inside the residence and closed the door.
9. I returned to my vehicle and contacted the Plaintiff to obtain further instructions. During that conversation, I was instructed to return to the residence and, if the male returned to the entrance, provide him with my contact details. I was further instructed to explain the nature of the documents and to be transparent regarding the purpose of my attendance.

 Peter Charles Wood

10. I subsequently returned to the entrance gate and activated the video security door alarm. Mr Kira then came out of the residence and approached me.

11. I provided Mr Kira with my business card, which contained my contact details, and explained the nature of my attendance and the documents I was attempting to serve. I informed him that the documents included a Bankruptcy Notice and explained that it was important that his son, Mr West Kira, be made aware of the documents and the requirements arising from them. (Attachment PCW2 Image of Mr Kira at the front gate)

12. Mr Kira responded by stating words to the effect of, "Well, good luck, as West has nothing."

13. I then advised Mr Kira that I would leave a copy of the documents with him for his son. I placed the documents on the security gate. (Attachment PCW3 placement of service document on the front gate)

14. Mr Kira then turned away from me, returned inside the residence and closed the door.

15. I did not have any further opportunity to speak with Mr West Kira personally or to place the documents directly into his possession.

16. Having regard to the circumstances of my attendance, including the information provided to me at the residential address and the subsequent interaction with Mr Kira, I was unable to effect personal service of the documents upon Mr West Kira.

17. I respectfully recommend that consideration be given to seeking an order for substituted service, having regard to the circumstances described above and the apparent difficulty in effecting personal service upon Mr West Kira.

18. I make this affirmation conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the Oaths Act 1867 (Queensland).
